Founded in 1991, La Scala has been serving business clients for more than 25 years and today is one of Italy's leading practices for banking and insolvency litigation.

It is a longstanding advisor to the major Italian banking groups, a large number of commercial and industrial enterprises, and a variety of other financial institutions.

Throughout its history, it has both advised companies on corporate, restructuring, IP, TMT, regulatory matters, white-collar crime matters, tax.

Each practice consists of a team of qualified professionals headed by a partner whose main objective is working in close cooperation with the other teams in order to provide the client with interdisciplinary assistance, from start up to extraordinary operations and business development.

The Firm's ranks include 170 lawyers and more than 100 supporting staff. In addition to its main office in Milan, the Firm has offices in Rome, Turin, Bologna, Florence, Venice, Vicenza, Padua and Ancona.

Francesco is a recognized lawyer specialized in Intellectual Property, TMT and Data Protection Law with over 20 years' experience in the legal profession. His clients range from start-ups to large high ranked companies to which he provides assistance to protect their immaterial assets and support business growth.

He is a keen observer of technology trends with a profound knowledge of legal framework in many innovative and cutting-edge sectors. He has written many publications and research papers and regularly writes articles on legal news and significant Italian and European case laws.

He is member of academic and teaching staff for post graduated courses; chairman and speaker in conventions on IP/ICT topics.

He is head of the IP/IT department at La Scala Studio Legale and worked in house on secondment at H3G, gaining valuable experiences of business oriented approach and cross border commercial transactions in TMT.
